

Elie FAROULT studied medicine and psychology. He has 20 years experience of counselling industries and administrations on strategic management and innovation.
Professor in social sciences in ENA (Ecole Nationale d'Administration, HEC and ESCP (Paris).
Adviser in OECD (1979-1990). Since 1992, In European Commission in charge of a development program on 5 Portuguese speaking countries in Africa (economy, health, education, industry and capacity building in administration).
Since 1998, Scientific Officer DG Research RTD, Directorate K "Social sciences and humanities, scientific and technological foresight, in charge of two High Level Expert Groups on "The future of Higher Education/Research relations" and "Converging Technologies"